Certificate of language editing

This is to certify that in January 2016 I edited the journal article:

Displaced margins and misplaced equity: Challenges for South Africa and America by Venitha Pillay, in terms of language usage and expression.

I focused on language issues, including grammar, tenses, removal of repetition, sentence construction, logical flow, US spelling, and consistency of reference style. I inserted comments and suggestions for the further attention and decision of the author. No further editing was done after author changes may have been implemented.
